President’s Report – Dr. Martin Eggensperger, President BRTC
Institutional Updates
Dr. Eggensperger welcomed everyone and summarized the following key points in his report: refinement of assessment processes, annual strategic plan, $1.7 million DOL grant, admissions and student engagement, facilities renovation of the library and welding lab, and the upcoming LETA barrack construction. He noted that the institutional budget, the financials, college catalog, student handbook and other updated policies are enclosed and ready for the Board’s review.

Academic Affairs – Dr. Brad Baine, Vice President
Dr. Baine noted he met with board members last week in committee meetings and there are action items to discuss later. He announced there are 340 students who completed degrees and certificates and 530 credentials that will be awarded. Ninety-one graduates have committed to commencement tonight. The Board had no questions.

Finance and Administration – Rhonda Stone, CPA, Vice President
Rhonda Stone summarized the FY 24 Budget to Actual Report, combing the bookstore and coffee shop in Paragould, the modest increase in costs at the coffee shop and grill, and the fact that Finance and Administration is fully staffed. She also noted the upcoming construction of the barracks, slated for some time in September, and the current welding shop and walking trail projects. Rhonda discussed the IT Security Brief that was handed out, stating Shannon Jacobsen has been upgrading and improving our systems with regard to cyber security. We will be working with the cyber security and infrastructure agency that David Coker referred. The Board had no questions.

Student Affairs – Jason Smith, J.D., Vice President
Jason Smith highlighted things from the Students Affairs summary which included mobile registration, the fitness studio, and recent VA audit with our final report due in a couple of weeks. He reviewed three components of the Title III Grant which included career readiness, durable skills, and a re-engagement campaign. Fall enrollment is up. The Board had no questions.

Institutional Advancement – Dr. Karen Liebhaber, Vice President
Dr. Liebhaber reminded everyone that the fiscal year ends on June 30th so there’s still time to get our growing strong donation in. She thanked everyone for coming to the Mary Helen Jackson Children’s Reading Room Grand Opening. We have another naming and grand opening that will be occurring in the near future. We had an almost record year on the Spring Soiree, with it being the second largest we’ve ever had. The Golf Tournament date is September 27th, with the rain day being the following Monday. Biannual legislative session starts in January. The Board had no questions.

Human Resources – Julie Edington, Executive Director
Julie Edington listed some of the recent positions that had been filled. Her office has been performing performance evaluations and updating job descriptions. The Outstanding Faculty and Staff selections have been completed and will be announced tomorrow along with the Milestone awards during our End of the Year Wrap Up. She invited all the board members to that event. The Board had no questions.

Institutional Effectiveness – Sissy Gray, Executive Director
Sissy Gray noted that they will be doing a review of our mission, vision, and values in the fall. She communicated in detail the significance of the Title III and DOL Grants and how they will affect not only BRTC but the community and local industries, Higher Ed, and local minorities as well as addressing transportation issues for CTC students, food insecurity for students, and translation and mentoring services for the Marshallese population. The Board had no questions.

Workforce and Corporate Training – Priscilla Stillwell, Executive Director
Priscilla Stillwell detailed the school’s ability to create customized classes for industries and the fact that we have communities outside our area that contact us and request classes. She noted that we received the Perkins Grant again for next year, $107,000. Priscilla mentioned the following: new workforce training brochure, working with Piggott Chamber of Commerce to develop an Industrial Advisory Board, trying to create more classes in the Randolph and Lawrence County areas and the approval of classes by the Workforce Challenge Scholarship. Dr. Eggensperger took a moment to recognize how important the work that Pricilla’s department does is to the college’s identity and to the community. The Board had no questions.

Action Items
The following slate of resolutions was detailed by their respective department heads and presented to the Board by Dr. Martin Eggensperger:
